Melvin Williams Sr.

AUTHOR | KEYNOTE SPEAKER | BLUE BELL, PENNSYLVANIA

About Melvin

Melvin Williams Sr. is a Blue Bell, Pennsylvania author, keynote speaker, and founder of The Philly Made Us Foundation, whose book There's a Mentor in You shows how small actions of belief change lives.

Current roles

Founder & CEO of The Philly Made Us Foundation; CEO of M&N Communications; Vice Chair of the Whitpain Township Board of Auditors.

Keynote and discussion topics

There's a Mentor in You | The Mentor's Field Guide | Beyond the Record: pathways from justice-impacted to workforce ready | Anchored in Hope: mentorship, education, and opportunity.

Professional audiences

Educators and school counselors; corrections and reentry professionals; workforce development; healthcare; youth-serving nonprofits; faith communities; corporate leadership.

The book

There's a Mentor in You: Your Small Actions of Belief Make a Difference in a Life (Expanded Edition). A professional development and leadership resource, including The Mentor's Field Guide. Kindle, paperback, hardcover, and audiobook on Amazon.

The Foundation

The Philly Made Us Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit in Blue Bell, PA. Its youth mentorship program for justice-impacted and at-risk youth is being developed, not operating.

Book Melvin to speak or request bulk books

mentorinyou.com/contact | melvin@pmuf.org | 267-270-7102